MEDICAL.

DR. C. W. MOORE'S
Medical and Surgical Institute.
Commercial Street, a few doors below Kearney Str.,
Attending and Resident Physician,
C. W. MOORE, M. D.,
Late Surgeon, U. S. A., Quarantine Physician New Orleans and Boston, Lecturer on Morbid Anatomy and Diseases of Women and Children, Member of the Massachusetts Medical Society, etc., etc.

DR. MOORE WOULD RESPECTFULLY INform the people of California that he has established an Institute for the
CURE OF DISEASES
WHETHER CHRONIC OR ACUTE
AT 641 COMMERCIAL STREET,
A few doors below Kearney, where he may be consulted at all hours.

DISEASES OF THE UTERINE OR OVARIAN FUNCTIONS,
Characterised by irregular, suppressed, or painful menstruation, pain in the sides and back, sensation of weight in the pelvis, weakness, nervous headache, leucorrhœa or whites, are treated on scientific principles, and a prompt and permanent cure effected.

NERVOUS AFFECTIONS,
Such as neuralgia, paralysis, giddiness, dimness of vision, etc., will receive special attention.

DISEASES OF THE SEXUAL ORGANS,
Male or female, are treated with all the skill and appliances which modern science has made available.—Nauseous drugs and nostrums, which are so often administered for weeks without benefit, are entirely discarded, and a few days only are required to accomplish a perfect cure.

Secondary and hereditary affections, scrofula in all its manifold forms, dyspepsia, emaciation and debility, treated with certain and unfailing remedies—speedily expelling all corrupt humors, and imparting a healthy tone to the system by purifying the blood, regulating the secretions, and reinvigorating the vital powers.

Twenty years practice in different parts of the world has given the Doctor advantages possessed by few, and his remarkable success warrants a promise of effectual cure.

Medicines, with full directions, will be sent to any part of the State on receipt of letter describing symptoms.

An infirmary is connected with the establishment, where patients who desire may receive board and constant attention during their sickness, thus avoiding the inconvenience of a hotel. Kind and attentive nurses will be employed, and no means will be left untried to give full satisfaction. Consultation free.

TO THE LADIES.—Females in trouble, or afflicted with disease, are respectfully invited to call on Dr. MOORE, and consult him about their troubles. His uniform success in his treatment of Female Suppression and kindred diseases is a sufficient guarantee of his scientific attainments. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but call at once, and save yourself from future suffering and misery. Consultations are confidential, and his offices are arranged for the strictest privacy. Address, C. W. MOORE, M. D.

THE HUMAN HAIR
HAS LONG BEEN THE STUDY OF THE most scientific men of the age, from the fact that close study generally causes the hair to fall off prematurely; and, in consequence, they have given the subject a portion of their valuable time, trying to invent some method to regain their lost looks; but all their labor was in vain, until
PROFESSOR CROCKETT
after many years of hard study devoted to this one subject, has produced an article that WILL MAKE THE HAIR GROW and which, by its use as a Hair Dressing, will effectually and always prevent its loss—even to extreme old age. Happily, the AMYGDALINE
while possessing these virtues, is most delightful and agreeable without regard to their virtue. The hair, when diseased, becomes dry, and commences to turn grey, which is caused by the non-secretion by the capillary glands of a peculiar oil. It has therefore been thought and believed that if the glands were stimulated into action, they would still give a sufficient supply of nourishment to the hair; but alas! they forget one very important law of nature, viz: that ALL STIMULANTS HAVE THEIR REACTION; and the more the glands were stimulated—the sooner the final loss of the much prized locks. The principle of the preparation invented by Professor Crockett is entirely the opposite—instead of stimulating the capillary glands, he feeds them with the substance they require, and, in turn, the hair is fed by them—on the same principle as giving water to a flower. All we will say to those who are timid about trying new preparations is, that we strictly guarantee the AMYGDALINE to be entirely free from all stimulants, and is as harmless as filtered water, and can be used on the smallest infant. As a Hair Dressing
it is unequalled by any the world has yet produced. It keeps the head entirely free of dandruff, eruption, pimples—imparting to the hair a beautiful glossy softness not obtained by an known compound. It will also be found both pleasant and useful as a Cosmettiques, rpassing cold cream and face lotions in its effects; for chaps, sore breast and nipples we know of no remedy that is equal to it.
THE PERFUME
used is such that the AMYGDALINE will always retain, it will not become rancid by age; in fact, it is perfect in every particular. Professor Crockett's Amygdaline can be had of all druggists and dealers everywhere. Price 50 cents.
Ask for Crockett's Amygdaline, and take no other. se25-6m

The California Fly-Killing Liquid.
FLY PAPER KILLS ITS THOUSANDS. THE Liquid Fly Killer its tens of thousands. This preparation for killing flies gives the greatest satisfaction of anything ever yet used. It is now improved to the highest killing point. It is of such a nature and so speedy of effects, that the flies will not spot the walls and windows, which makes the use of other preparations so objectionable.

THE NEW GOSPEL OF PEACE.

ACCORDING TO BENJAMIN.

CHAPTER IX.

1. Now the governor of the province of Gotham sought to be chief ruler of the land of Unculpsalm.

2. And of the Pahdees he was called Say More, because that he could say more and mean less than any other man in that country. But of the Kopur-hedds, which were not Pahdees, he was called See More, because that there was no man who could see more ways of making trouble for other folk and getting out of it himself.

3. Wherefore, among the Pahdees and the Kopur-hedds he was thought to be the fittest man to rule the land of Unculpsalm in place of Abraham the Honest.

4. And when Robbutleeh marched into the province of Schadbellee, Abraham sent messages unto the governor of Gotham and unto the governor of Jarzee, saying, The Phiretahs be upon you! Arouse, and send men southward to meet them, ere they march upon your cities.

5. And the governor of Gotham then showed that he should be named See More. For he said within himself, Behold, if that cometh to pass for which I am looking, will it not be better that the soldiers of Gotham be southward in the province of Schadbellee, and in the province which is called the land of Mary?

6. For Robbutleeh will surely be victorious, and then shall the city of Gotham and the province of Gotham be without defence against him, and the end shall come the more quickly, and the gospel of peace shall prevail, and the bonds of this nation shall be dissolved, and I shall be a satrap in my province; and so likewise shall the other governors be in their provinces, and we shall make a league together not like unto the Great Covenant, but like unto the league which was before the Great Covenant, and the corner-stone thereof shall be the everlasting Niggah. For it is better that this nation should be destroyed than that the slaves should go free, and the everlasting Niggah should cease from off the land.

7. Wherefore he sent southward speedily all the soldiers of Gotham and the country round about, even twenty thousand men. And they marched into the province of Schadbellee, into the southern and middle parts thereof.

8. And the men of this country, even the Tytchmen, sons of Hesh, had fled, some of them, from before the Tshivulree, and others had remained and compromised unto them; but there were none which remained and defied them and took up arms against them.

9. But such were not all the men of the land of the Cooacres. For they sent forth many mighty men to the war, footmen and horsemen, which had fought valiantly for Unculpsalm; and a part of the army of Unculpsalm which had gotten great renown, had come out of the province of Schadbellee, and was called after the name of that province.

10. Likewise also did the Cooacres furnish many men, even a great multitude, unto another army in the service of Unculpsalm; even the noble army of Counteractors, which did continually praise Abraham.

11. And when the soldiers of Gotham came into the province of Schadbellee, nigh unto the place where the hosts of Robbutleeh were, they looked to be received with favor and with thankfulness by the men of that country.

12. But the Tytchmen said, Now can we do like the men of the land of Jonbool, for whom our fathers came to fight. We can avenge our fathers of these Iangkies for the defeat our fathers suffered from their fathers; for we can spoil them and get gelt. And so shall we do like unto the men of the land of Jonbool, when they avenge themselves against the Iangkies, and turn also every man an honest penny.

13. For these Iangkies be come hither from Gotham in great multitudes, and they will need food and drink and lodging. Wherefore they are at our mercy, and we will make them pay fourfold for all that they require of us. And they did so.

14. And the men of Gotham were astonished, and said, Is it thus that ye do unto them which come to protect you against the Phiretahs?

15. And they answered and said, Yea, verily. For if ye come to protect us against the Phiretahs, how shall we be protected unless we get from you the gelt that the Phiretahs have taken away from us?

16. Go to, then: for a loaf of bread ye shall pay thirty pennies, and for an egg ye shall pay six pennies, and for a cup of water three pennies; and so on in like manner for all that ye may require of us.

17. And if ye be foolish, and will not compromise unto the Phiretahs, and entreat them humbly, but will go into battle against them, and any of you be wounded, as ye shall deserve, we will bind up your wounds, and pour in oil and wine, like unto the Samaritan of old; and for the bandage ye shall pay a piece of silver, and for the oil three pieces of silver, and for the wine five pieces of silver, even of the pieces which are almighty and which we worship. And for your lodging while ye are sick, ye shall pay in like manner.

18. And for the Tshivulree and the Phiretahs against whom ye come, ye are no more welcome than they. We care nothing for your quarrel. Get you gone, both of you, and leave us to our farms and our merchandise, that we may get gelt and put it into pots and into stockings. Let us alone, and give us Jah Xumn for chief ruler.

19. Thus did the Tytchmen of the province of Schadbellee. But in the land of Unculpsalm were other Tytchmen, not sons of Hesh, which did not so, but fought valiantly against the Phiretahs. Likewise also came Tytchmen among the soldiers of Gotham; and their cheeks burned with shame and anger because of the doings of their brethren in the land of the Cooacres, and they reviled them in their own tongue.

20. And the men of the province of Schadbellee, which were Cooacres, and which were of the blood of the Iangkies, did not thus, but made ready to do battle with the Phiretahs, and cast up mounds around their cities, and set thereon engines of war, which sent forth fire and smoke and iron.

21. Thus did the men of the city of Furnaces, which lieth on the north of the river of strong Waters, which is at the beginning of the great river of the debtors, even the Oh-I-owe, which is the way to the country of the Repudiators, by which thou descendest unto the city of Swine-sin-naughty.

22. For that city was entirely given up to sinning with the unclean beast. So that the people did nothing else, night nor day, but slay and eat the abominable creature, and make ready for others to eat thereof. Wherefore when they of the circumcision, like unto Augustus the money-changer, passed through that city, they washed themselves, and were unclean until the evening. And it is called the city of Swine-sin-naughty to this day.

23. And the chief ruler of Iawre and the Tytchmen of Schadbellee, were held in scorn, and the men of the city of the Furnaces, and they which did like unto them, were held in honor throughout the land of Unculpsalm.

CHAPTER X.

1. Now when Robbutleeh marched northward into the province which is called the land of Mary, Joseph of Kalaphorni, whom Robbutleeh had driven out of the Wilderness of Pharjinnee, was yet chief captain of the army of Unculpsalm, which aforetime had been led by Litulmak the Unready, and by John the Boaster, and by Ambrose the Faithful.

2. And this army was an army of chosen men, and valiant, which had borne the heat and burden of the war, and which had been thrice turned back with great slaughter, but could not be conquered, no, not even by calamity.

3. And Joseph of Kalaphorni was a valiant man, and a trusty. And when Robbutleeh marched northward, Joseph marched after him to give him battle.

4. But so it was that Joseph saw that Abrahams's counsellors of war distrusted him, because of that he had been driven out of the Wilderness of Pharjinnee, and that they worked not with him to obtain the victory. And he said, What am I, that my honor and my glory should peril the land of Unculpsalm? Let another be made chief captain in my place; and let me be a soldier in the armies of my country.

5. And Abraham and his counsellors made George the Mede chief captain in the place of Joseph.

6. Now George the Mede was of the city of the Cooacres. And he was a meek man, and had been for a long time a captain in the army of Unculpsalm, serving faithfully and eschewing flatterers. And the people of Unculpsalm, save his own soldiers, the Cooacres of the province of Schadbellee knew not his name.

7. Wherefore the land was astonished, and trembled when it saw that he was set up against Robbutleeh, who had discomfited Litulmak, and John the Boaster, and Ambrose the Faithful, and Joseph of Kalaphorni.

8. But the Kopur-hedds rejoiced in their hearts, and said within themselves, Now shall the armies of Abraham be utterly put to rout, by Robbutleeh, and the people will say, Abraham is unfit to rule over us.

9. And the scribes of the Kopur-hedds wrote in the books which they sent out day by day, such things as would prepare the people for the defeat of George the Mede, and the destruction of the government of Unculpsalm.

10. And George the Mede said, Who am I, that this great office should be laid upon me? But he halted not, neither doubted, but marched straight forward by swift marches upon Robbutleeh.

11. And when Robbutleeh heard that the army of the Yangkies (for so the Tshivulree called all the men of Unculpsalm who did not buy and sell the Niggah, and get their bread by the sweat of his face), and that George the Mede was its chief captain.

12. He said, What be these Iangkies, that they dare to withstand their masters? and who is this Mede, that he cometh with a thrice defeated army between me and my great purpose? Behold, I will scatter him and his host to the four winds of heaven, and give their flesh to the fowls of the air and the beasts of the field, and they shall perish from off the earth, and the land of Unculpsalm shall be purged of the Iangkies and their rule forever.

13. Likewise also said the other captains of his host; for such had been the manner of the Tshivulree from the beginning.

14. And Robbutleeh called his army together from the cities of Schadbellee round about, a mighty host, to fall upon George the Mede suddenly and destroy him. For the host of Unculpsalm was scattered, and weary by reason of its long marching; and Robbutleeh said, I shall fall upon it piecemeal, and grind it to powder.

15. And George the Mede saw that the battle drew nigh, and that the host of the Phiretahs was greater than the army of Unculpsalm, and that those were rested, and well fed and high hearted, because they had come together by short marches, and that they were puffed up with conceit of the might of their valor, and that these were weary and worn by the length of the way and with watching, and that they remembered how they had three times turned back before the sword of Robbutleeh.

16. So he made a proclamation to all the captains of his host, even the captains of hundreds and the captains of fifties, saying,

17. Speak unto the men, and say unto them, The hour of deliverance or of captivity is at hand. Choose ye, therefore; whether this nation shall be destroyed, or whether it shall be saved by the might of your arms and the stoutness of your courage. Choose ye, whether ye will live or die for this land in honor, or die before your people in dishonor. For as I live, he that turneth his back this day, shall be slain by them of his own company. Behold, the hearts of this people are stayed upon you, and ye fight each one of you for a thousand, for your fathers and your brethren, and your wives, and your little ones. Be valiant, therefore, as ye have before been valiant, and ye shall be worthy of the victory.

18. But George the Mede promised them not the victory, neither boasted he of what he would accomplish.

19. And so it was, that as the men marched swiftly through the darkness before the dawn, they communed together with low voices in their ranks, and said one to another, Let us die together this day, my brother, but let us not turn back. And afterward they were silent, and their hearts went homeward, and they said within themselves, God help us, and this people.

20. And it came to pass that as the vanguard of the army of George the Mede pressed forward, and got far before the main body, the host of the Phiretahs fell upon it in great numbers, and drove it back, and its captain was slain. But it fled not, but went backward fighting, so that the Phiretahs left pursuing. And they pitched a camp, and fortified it in the burial-ground of a city, called Gettingsburg.

21. For in the language of that land, burg meaneth a city; and the men of this city were altogether occupied in getting, even in getting gelt, so that for the honor and the glory and the freedom of the land of Unculpsalm cared they nothing. Wherefore the city was called Gettingsburg.

22. Yet there was one man of Gettingsburg, a poor man, who took his weapons and went out to fight the Phiretahs.

23. And on the morrow, Robbutleeh set his army in battle array to attack the army of George the Mede before it was well brought together. And about the fourth hour of the evening he came down upon the men of Unculpsalm with all his host, and fell furiously upon them, and there was great slaughter. And the men of Unculpsalm were outnumbered; yet fought they valiantly, and slew of their enemies more than there fell of themselves. And they went a little backward fighting, and the Phiretahs followed hard after.

24. Then came up succor, even a great company of the army of George the Mede, which had been marching all the night, and which now moved swiftly toward the noise of the battle. And they came up running, and went into the fight without halting. Then the men of Unculpsalm stood fast again, and drove the Phiretahs backward. And this was about the going down of the sun.

25. And the Phiretahs and the captains of the Tshivulree wondered, and said among themselves, Who is this George the Mede that he thus withstandeth the great Robbutleeh? and what men be these that do battle under him? Is this the host that was to flee like sheep before us? Yet they were not dismayed; for although they were boasters, yet were they valiant. And they looked anxiously for the morrow.

26. And early in the morning, while yet it was dawning, the host of the Phiretahs was set in battle array and marching quickly upon the host of Unculpsalm, even upon one wing thereof. For they said, So shall we crush them unawares. But the men of Unculpsalm fell back a little, fighting, and George the Mede sent them succor, and again they stood fast, and drove off the Phiretahs with great slaughter.

27. Then were the captains of the Phiretahs perplexed in their souls, and waxed very wroth. And one of them, a man of blood, who was possessed of the evil spirit Blustah, and which was called of the men of Jonbool Hew-hell, took an oath in the name of his god, and blasphemed after the manner of the Phiretahs, and swore that he would break through the ranks of the men of Unculpsalm that day.

28. And Robbutleeh sent unto George the Mede, saying, Let there be peace between us for a time, that I may bury my dead and that we may exchange our prisoners.

29. And George the Mede sent back the messenger, saying, There cannot be peace between thee and me. For thy dead, I will bury them even as my own, and my men whom thou hast taken I mean to take from thee again. For he saw the craft of Robbutleeh, that he would have given up the battle and escaped, even as he had done aforetime with Litulmak.

30. Then was Robbutleeh astonished at the subtlety and at the boldness of George the Mede, and he addressed his army again to battle, for he saw that his case was desperate. And he set all his men in array with their banners, and marched them forward with pomp and great majesty, even as on a feast-day. In two ranks they marched, so that the second might finish the work which the first begun. For still they were confident and high-hearted.

31. And they went forward in order, terrible and beautiful, shouting as they went. But the men of Unculpsalm answered them not; for the footman all lay flat upon the ground, and the horsemen and they that worked the great engines of fire held their peace craftily.

32. And when he first ranks of the Phiretahs came near, the men of Unculpsalm rose and fell upon them; and the two fought together, but neither prevailed. Yet fell there more of the men of Unculpsalm, for they were outnumbered, and the Phiretahs were valiant and had waxed desperate.

33. Then came on the second ranks of the Phiretahs, running fiercely upon the remnant of the men of Unculpsalm, who fell where they stood in the ranks or went backward fighting. But so it was that when the Phiretahs looked to fall upon the men of Unculpsalm and put them all to the sword, the engines of George the Mede poured out fire upon them, and out of the fire came thunderings and bolts of iron that swept away the foremost of their second array, and of the residue some fled backward, and some threw themselves down upon the ground and gave themselves prisoners. For they saw that they could not pass into that fire and live. And they said one to another, Behold we be all dead men. And again this was about the going down of the sun.

34. And all the night George the Mede made ready to pursue the Phiretahs in the morning.

35. But when Robbutleeh looked upon the field he saw that the day was lost, and that if he tarried until the meeting he would be destroyed and cut off. So he gathered his army together and fled in the night (for he was a wary man and a prudent); and in the morning the men of Unculpsalm found that their enemies had vanished away from before them.

36. Then they pursued the hosts of the Phiretahs, but they could not come up with them; for those had the start of these, and both alike were weary and suffering from the battle.

37. So the Phiretah captain who was called of the men of Jonbool Hew-hell brake not through the ranks of the men of Unculpsalm, in spite of his oaths and his blasphemies, nor did he wait to receive from the men of Iawre the rest of the money and the corn and the unmentionable raiment, neither did he sojourn in the city which is called after the name of Hagar, but got him out of it speedily. And George the Mede and the man of Unculpsalm pursued after him. And this was the end of his oaths and of his boasting and of his respecting of private property.

38. So Robbutleeh fled back again into the land of Pharjinnee.

A LETTER from a rebel soldier to the "bereaved of his soul," said to have been intercepted, contains some touching paragraphs. He says: "My quarters in camp are passable but my quarters in my pocket are not. Last night I had a mud puddle for my pillow, and covered myself with a sheet of water. I long for more whiskey barrels and less gun barrels, more biscuits and less bullets. How I wish you were here. The farther away I get from you, the better I like you.

A MONUMENT is to be erected in Baltimore in memory of Thomas Wildey, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, and founder of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 28, 1865.

Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on,
The Stars and Stripes are up for Liberty,
Flag of the Nation--Talisman of the Free,
Curs'd be the hand that dares to tear thee down.

☞ REMEMBER that Father Callan holds Catholic service in the Theater to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, A. M. All are invited to attend.

FESTIVAL.—The ladies of Yankee Jims and vicinity will give a Festival and Masquerade Ball on the 22d of February next in aid of the Soldiers Aid Society. From the well known hospitality and social qualities of the people of that place, those who attend the ball can rely on the very best treatment. The object for which the ball is given should be an incentive for all good citizens to attend, and from the political complexion of the sovereigns of that vicinity we predict a success on the part of those engaged in the enterprise.

THE COMING MAN.—During the past week we have heard the names of several gentlemen mentioned in connection with the various offices to be filled in this county at the election next Fall. The slate, we hear has been made up by the Auburn clique, and there is an indication that the "outsiders" intend breaking it. How this will be, we cannot tell, but the combination should allow the people some show to manifest a preference. We learn that Phil. W. Thomas, Esq., has a hankering after the "flesh pots," again; but we believe he is an "outsider," i. e. don't belong to the clique. How this will affect his aspirations will be decided at the convention, when the people will learn whether they can choose their own officers or not. Mr. Thomas was District Attorney of this county for two terms, and we believe discharged the duties of the office to the satisfaction of the people. He is well known to the people of the county, and will probably upset the calculations of those engaged in manufacturing officers without the consent of the sovereigns.

THE ROADS.—Since the late heavy rains the roads leading in and out of the town have become almost impassable, and we are glad to learn that the Road Commissioner, Mr. Secord, is circulating a subscription paper to raise funds to repair the worst places, and also to place I or Stockton street in a passable condition for teams; to complete repairs on Sacramento str.; to grade Main street, and to repair the road leading out of town beyond the theater. All who have any idea of trade and traffic will probably agree with us that good thoroughfares in and out of a town are indispensable auxiliaries to a rapid increase of population and business; and knowing this, it is surprising that our prominent citizens have not acted in this matter before. However, it is better late than never; and we are glad to hear that two of our prominent men have indicated a willingness to give five hundred dollars in aid of the project. This amount, together with what can be raised from the balance of our business men will be amply sufficient to place our roads and streets in a first rate condition. We hope our people will look at this matter in its proper light and give it their cordial coöperation.

A "GREASER" VICTIMIZED.—On Saturday night last, a Mexican miner visited town, and becoming intoxicated, went into a "hurdy" house, and after watching the graceful motions of the handsome Dutch damsels for some time, left the house in company with two men, supposed to be his friends. He found himself next morning minus some $17 and his boots, which had been "gobbled" by the aforesaid "friends," who have both "scuygled." Some one gave him a pair of old carpet slippers,—rather a poor thing to mine in—which he placed on his feet and "dusted" for home. The stealing of the money serves the "greaser" right for getting drunk, but the thieves must have been very flat broke to steal the boots off a man's feet.

WE were agreeably surprised, on Monday morning last, at the entrance into our sanctum of Mr. Geo. S. Maker, the Main street grocer, who carried with him a large parcel wrapped in paper. Opening it, we found it filled with delicious fruit, for which we beg to return our thanks. He has "more of the same sort" left, and also a fine stock of family groceries, which he is selling as cheap as anybody. If you don't believe it, go and see for yourselves.

WE call attention to an advertisement in another column, cautioning persons from negotiating for two notes which have been lost. The finder will be rewarded by leaving them at the office of Wells, Fargo & Co.

POSTPONED.—The ball which was to have been given by Mr. Polley at the Crystal Lake House, on the Donner Lake road, on Thursday night last, has been postponed until Thursday night of next week, Febrnary 2nd, on account of the inclemency of the weather. At that time it is believed the weather will be good, the sleighing fine, and a good time generally may be anticipated.

MINING ACCIDENT.—Samuel Harris, one of the first settlers of Gold Run, had a leg broken and was otherwise injured by the caving of a bank in a hydraulic claim in which he was working, at that place, one Wednesday of this week.

STORM.—We have during the past week been visited with a terrific storm of snow, hail and rain; not a great deal of the former, but a good quantity of the latter, giving our miners a renewed stock of water which they were commencing to need. The gods don't mean to destroy us yet; we are not angry.

LETTER FROM SACRAMENTO.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26, 1865.

MR. EDITOR:—Again your correspondent has the pleasure of sitting down to indite his regular weekly epistle to the readers of the ENQUIRER. I am afraid you do not get your monep's worth, Brother Boust; if you do not, you have but to hint that much, and the "Unknown" will don his chapeau and bid farewell to letter-writing forever. It is at best a brain-working business to be compelled, week after week, excitement or no excitement, news or no news, to fill up the regular sheets with words as barren of thought, as empty of ideas as a roast turkey at a third class hotel is destitute of taste or flavor. Nevertheless, while the "covenant standeth," my "sense of duty" impels me to scribble on.

POLITICIANS.

Speaking of "a sense of duty," the very fact that I possess that rare and heaven-born "sense" proves that I am no politician. No earthly thing, not even service in the army under Fitz John Porter and McClellan, will demoralize a man so speedily and completely as political life? Who believes a politician? Who puts faith in a politician? Better disobey at once the solemn injunction of scripture and "put trust in princes." The politician trusts nobody; he believes that "all men are liars," like himself. He believes in nothing but that there are places called offices, which any worthless scamp is entitled to provided he lies well, has a genius for combinations and will sell himself. He does not even believe in God; he doubts the resurrection, and utterly discards the idea of a future judgment. St. Paul called himself "the chiefest of sinners." What? can a man be the chiefest of sinners and not a politician? The Roman officers must have been right; "much learning" had made poor Paul mad."

LEGISLATURE.

Speaking of politicians, I am reminded that I see but few about town. The Biennial session clause in the Constitution makes Sacramento extremely dull this winter. Hotels, saloons, and various and sundry houses on Second street and other parts of the city suffer therefrom. But what is their loss is the public gain. A leading citizen of San Francisco told me the other day that the wealthy property holders and tax payers of that city were actually in a state of terror whenever the Legislature was in session, for fear that some stupid muggins might introduce a bill which by ignorance or carelessness or corruption might be passed, destroying the title to their property, or actually robbing them of their "filthy lucre." Poor devils! they have no business to have any property and live within the jurisdiction of a California Legislature.

GREENBACKS.

Speaking of property reminds me that the feeling is fast becoming general among the people in favor of the introduction of the national currency. People begin to see that paper currency is better than no currency at all. Our precious metals, as fast as mined, are drawn out of the State by the exigencies of business and trade; we receive butter and coats in return—the butter we eat, the coats we wear out—and nothing is left in the shape of a medium of exchange or currency in the place of our gold, which has "taken to itself wings," and passed away from us forever. Besides, the general Government spends every year $10,000,000 in greenbacks on this coast, which if we had the national currency, would be a great source of wealth and profit to us. As it is, the general Government might as well distribute among us so many dead Democrats. Our Specific Contract law was made expressly for the rich man and to protect his gold. When will ye learn, O ye thoughtless voters, that the rich man can always take care of himself, and that it is the poor man, if any, that needs the protection and tender care of the State? The leaven is working. As I said above, the people begin to think; they will act at the next session of the Legislature, and California will exhibit her good sense, as well as her earnest patriotism, by adopting the currency of the Government.

When I began this letter I had nothing to say; and if your readers are not satisfied, now I am done, that I have said just nothing, they must be dull enough to believe in the honesty of a politician, the virtue and wisdom of a California Legislature, and the superior advantages of a metallic currency. UNKNOWN.

WHO WROTE THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. There have been carping critics who have raised at times the question of the authorship of certain documents bearing the name of the President. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing on this subject, says the original manuscript of the inaugural, fairly covered with interlineations in the handwriting of Mr. Seward, is still in existence in Washington. The concluding sentence of the Emancipation Proclamation is known to have been Mr. Chase's. The purely departmental parts of one or more late messages were originally written by other hands. But the document, which, linked with another great act, will go down to history as having made this a day to be marked in the Calendar beside that one which gives us the Emancipation Proclamation, is of no uncertain origin. The more important parts of it were heard by the Cabinet, when for the first time read to them, in silent approbation. Not a change of a sentence or a word was suggested. And if history wants any Boswellian particulars, it may be interesting to put in print the fact that the President wrote the message on stiff sheets of a sort of card-board, which he could lay upon his knee, and write upon as he sat with his feet on the table and his chair tilted back in the "American attitude."

RUSSIAN TELEGRAPH.—The superintending engineer of the proposed telegraph to connect New York with St. Petersburg, Russia, has arrived in San Francisco, and has commenced preparations for his Summer campaign. Vessels with materials for the new enterprise are on their way around Cape Horn, and will arrive here before the opening of Spring. The object of those engaged in this enterprise is to construct a telegraph to the mouth of the Amoor river, there to connect with a line now being constructed from St. Petersburg. It is within the scope of the project to run a branch line south to Nagasaki in Japan.

PRETTY GOOD.—Alluding to Webb, successor to the late Sam Medary of the Ohio Statesman, the Marysville Express says:

Let him carefully follow in the footsteps of his friend and predecessor, and 'twill be well.

To this a wicked abolitionist replies:

Our sentiments exactly. Let Webb follow his friend Medary to hell as speedily as may be and 'twill be well indeed.

A VOICE FROM THE FRONT.

Through the kindness of our friend Mr. Neff, we are permitted to publish the following interesting letter from W. D. Belnap, formerly of Iowa Hill, and now in Company C, Second Massachusetts Cavalry, at Winchester, Va. The items of interest contained in the letter will be appreciated by many of our readers in the upper portion of the county, especially at Iowa Hill and vicinity, where many of the friends and relatives of the brave boys yet reside:

WINCHESTER, Va., Dec. 7, 1864.

FRIEND NEFF:—I suppose that you have arrived at the conclusion that I had forgotten you altogether, but I assure you such is not the case. Since I last wrote you we have seen some pretty hard fighting. Since July last our regiment has been engaged in nearly fifty fights. There are now only fifteen California boys left in our company; those from Iowa Hill are all gone but four or five. Henry Mattox is here in good health; Edward Smith is sick; John L. Finley was taken prisoner last Spring and made his escape a few weeks ago; W. C. Howe is a prisoner; Joseph Beneger, from Monona Flat, is wounded; George Carr was killed; Jerry Sparrowhawk is wounded; Stephen Weisergerber, from Wisconsin Hill, was killed; James Peoples is wounded; William Bumgardner was killed; Charles E. Meader, from Dutch Flat, was killed. Charley was Orderly Sergeant when we left California, and by his bravery and good conduct was promoted to Second Lieutenant, which position he held when he was killed. He was very popular with the men. Col. Towle was killed on the 19th of October at Cedar Creek. That was a terrible day, and we lost a great many men.

We have now just returned from a raid, in which we captured a thousand head of cattle, fifteen hundred sheep and as many hogs. We burnt all the hay and grain we could find, which was considerable, and that I think will cause the Johnnies a pretty hard time this winter. We have not yet built our winter quarters, and I am not able to say whether we will or not, as there are rumors in camp that our brigade is to be sent to join Sherman in Georgia.

Our war-horse, Gen. Sheridan, gave the rebels the worst whipping at Cedar Creek on the the 19th October they have received during the war. There has been no snow here yet, the nights are cold, bul the days are warm and pleasant.

When I left California I was under the impression that the war would close ere this; but now I think it will last a year longer. Be that as it may, we are bound to put down this rebellion if it should require four years more. The men of our division or unanimous in this sentiment, and are persuaded of the ability of the Government to accomplish it.

Your friend,
W. D. BELNAP.

THE BIBLE

Contains 66 books, 1,189 chapters, 31,173 verses, 773,692 words, 3,566,480 letters.

The word and occurs 46,227 times; the word reverend occurs only once—in the 9th verse of the 11th Psalm; the name Lord occurs 6,962 times in the Old Testament; God occurs 2,726 times; Jesus, 625 times in the New Testament; Christ, 555 times; the word Selah—which we believe has never been satisfactorily interpreted—is met with 74 times in the Bible; the word eternity but once. The double asseveration, verily, verily, is to be seen 25 times in John's gospel and no where else. There are 314 interrogatories (?) in Job. The phrase "and God said," occurs 10 times in the 1st chapter of Genesis. The word foreordained is mentioned but once in the whole Bible—I. Peter 1, xx, atonement but once, in the New Testament. There is no mention made in the Scriptures of "Adam's fall," "original sin" or the "covenant of grace." The words eternal life are mentioned but once—Daniel 12, II. The word predestination is not mentioned once in the whole book.

The middle and shortest chapter is the 117th Psalm; the middle verse is the 8th of the 118th Psalm; the longest verse is the 9th of the 8th chapter of Esther; the shortest is the 35th of the 11th chapter of St. John. The 19th chapthe of II. Kings and the 37th of Isaiah are alike. The 8th, 15th, 21st, and 31st verses of the 107th Psalm are alike. There are no words or names in the Bible of more than six syllables.

RE-ARREST OF A STAGE ROBBER.—We learn from the Placerville News of the 11th that Wm. Gasley was arrested at that place on Tuesday last. He is one of the Coulterville stage robbers who escaped from Sheriff Bourland, of Tuolumne county, June 30th. Bourland had him in irons at the time; was on the way from Coulterville to Sonora—Gasley took the Sheriff's double barrelled shot gun, jumped from the carrtage and made his escape. From a description sent by Bourland the officers felt warranted in making the arrest. Since his arrest he has made a clean breast, and says he is the man.

Two ladies from Tennessee called on President Lincoln, recently, importuning the release of their husbands, held as prisoners of war at Johnson's Island. In the course of the conversation the President said to one of the ladies who laid great stress upon her husband being a religious man: "You say your husband is a religious man. Tell him, when you meet him, that I say I am not much of a judge of religion, but that, in my opinion, the religion that sets men to turn traitors and fight against their Government, because, as they think, the Government does not sufficiently help some men to eat their bread by the sweat of other men's faces, is not the sort of religion upon which people can get to Heaven." The President considers this last, his shortest as well as his best speech.

LILLIE'S LOCK OPENED IN ONE MINUTE!

NEW YORK, September 2, 1864.
F. TILLMAN, Esq., 318 Battery street,
Bet. Commercial and Clay, San Francisco.
DEAR SIR: WE NOTICE AN ADVERTISEment in your daily papers respecting the "security" of the "Lillie" lock. We are aware that you well understand this lock, and, of course, will not allow yourself to be annoyed by such representations. We have just sent for one of our men at the factory, and he, in our presence, opened one of Lillie's best safe locks, after it had been locked and the combination turned on,
By one Blow of the Hammer
Against the knob on the outside, and thereby breaking the cast iron bolt on the inside.
The whole time occupied in opening the lock was about ONE MINUTE. We send you this lock that your friends may not be deceived by false representations, etc. Respectfully, etc.,
A. E. TILTON,
WM. McFARLAND.

NO PRACTICAL
Lock Picker or Thimble-rigger
Required to OPERATE THE SAID LILLIE LOCK.
Any parties desirous of seeing the above mentioned lock, its insecurity and easy mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery street, San Francisco.

GLOUCESTER, March 26, 1864.
MESSRS. TILTON & MCFARLAND,
Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.
Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase one of his
So-called "Fire Proof Safes."
On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything was Destroyed.
We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenrie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make), and its contents were found to be In Perfect Condition.
This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc.—their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, faring, however, no better than our own.
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
[Signed:] GEO. L. CHESBRO & CO.

THE ONLY PROTECTION
Against Fire and Burglars.
For the last Fifteen Years
This safe has been well known in California and the Eastern States. They have resisted all the fires on the Pacific coast, and we can point with satisfaction to the record that No man ever lost a dollar out of one of our safes by means of burglars. Their fire and burglar proof qualities are so well known that they need no further recommendation.
A good assortment of Tilton & McFarland's Fire and Burglar Proof Safes to be had at
No. 318 Battery street, San Francisco.

INVENTORS, MECHANICS, AGRICULTURISTS,
Are directed to the annual prospectus of the cheapest and best Mechanical Journal in the world.
The Illustrated Scientific American,
A New Volume of which commences Jan. 1, 1865.

THIS VALUABLE JOURNAL HAS BEEN published nineteen years, and during all this time it has been the firm and steady advocate of the Inventor, Mechanic, Manufacturer, and Farmer, and the faithful chronicler of the progress of Art, Science and Industry.
The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is the largest, the only reliable, and most widely circulated journal of the kind now published in the United States. It has witnessed the growth of nearly all the great inventions and discoveries of the day, most of which have been illustrated and described in its columns. It also contains a Weekly Official List of all the Patent Claims, a feature of great value to all Inventors and Patentees.
In the Mechanical Department, a full account of all improvements in Machinery will be given. Also practical articles upon the various Tools used in workshops and manufactories.
Steam and Mechanical Engineering will continue to receive careful attention, and all experiments and practical results attained will be fully recorded.
Woollen, Cotton and other Manufacturing Interests will have special attention. Also, Firearms, War Implements, Ordnance, War Vessels, Railway Machinery, Mechanics' Tools, Electric, Chemical and Mathematical Apparatus, Wood and Lumber Machines, Hydraulics, Pumps, Water-wheels, etc.; Household and FARM IMPLEMENTS—this latter department being very full and of great value to Farmers and Gardeners; Articles embracing every department of Popular Science, which everybody can understand.
Patent Law Decisions and Discussions will, as heretofore, form a prominent feature. Owing to the very large experience of the publishers, Messrs. MUNN & Co., as Solicitors of Patents, this department of the paper will possess great interest to Patentees and inventors.

The year's numbers contain several hundred superb engravings; also reliable practical recipes, useful in every shop and household. Two volumes each year, 416 pages—total, 832 pages.

NEWTON AND SCEPTICISM.

Having had the pleasure of attending divine service at the Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday evening, I was forcibly impressed with the courage or liberality exhibited by the second speaker in his closing exhortation. In speaking of sceptics and unbelievers generally he referred to Sir Isaac Newton, and strongly hinted that it must be vain and egotistical if not downright folly for intellectual pigmies—like ourselves—to hesitate and doubt in regard to matters which Newton had investigated and established to the satisfaction of his mighty intellect. The logical conclusion was that if we did not implicitly "pin our faith to the sleeve" of Newton, we ought at least to allow his religious opinion to have great weight in forming our own. Hence it becomes important to know what the religious opinions of Sir Isaac Newton were After as thorough an investigation as my means at hand will allow, I find that Newton held the following, if not heterodox, at least sceptical, opinions: First—He did not believe in the plenary inspiration of the Bible. In other words, he did not believe that the Bible, from Genesis to Revelations, was the infallible word of God. Second—He did not believe that Jesus was the Son of God; but that he was a man, who lived, taught, suffered and died as a man; that God was his father in the same sense that He is "Our Father which art in Heaven," (see Matthew, vi. chap., 9 verse.) Third—He believed that many portions of the New Testament, portions on which are based some of the fundamental doctrines of the orthodox christian church, are misreadings or downright forgeries. For instance, he believed that the seventh verse of the fifth chapter of the First Epistle of John was a forgery; and that the sixteenth verse of the third chapter of Timothy is a false reading. On these texts, coupled with the first verses of the first chapter of John—which Newton believed an interpolation—is based the doctrine of the Trinity, a doctrine lying at the very foundation of all evangelical christianity.

Such being some of his religious opinions, was it not an exhibition of great courage or great liberality, or both, for a Methodist clergyman, of the strictest sect, to refer sceptics and unbelievers to him as an example and pattern on which they should form their religious opinions? For one, I admire such generous, high-minded candor. It is a hopeful sign of the times; barren and fruitless dogmas of the church are giving way to the advancing thought of the age. Newton was a sceptic in all things; in religion as well as in science. Herein was the great secret of his wonderful discoveries. Like all sceptics, he clung to the wise saying of the apostle, he "proved all things," and only "held fast to that which was good." Had he not been a doubter he would never have been an investigator, and the world to-day might have been ignorant of the binomial theorem, the law of gravitation, the beautiful theory of the compound nature, and refraction of light, and the immortal Principia itself.

SCEPTIC.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crises of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Sold by all Druggists and dealers every where. HOSTETTER, SMITH & DEAN,

CONSTABLE'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF an Execution to me directed and delivered, on the 14th day of January, 1865, out of the Court of O. H. Young a Justice of the Peace in and for Township No. 7. Placer county and State of California, on a judgment rendered in said Court, on the 3th day of January, A. D. 1865. in favor of James F. Brown and against W. S. Conner, for the sum of Two Hundred and Twelve 60-100 Dollars (212 60) in gold or silver coin or the equivalent, with interest thereon at the rate of two per cent. per month from the 3d day of January, A. D. 1865, together with costs of suit, taxed at Forty-three 75-100 Dollars (43 75), I have on the 14th day of January, A. D. 1865, levied upon and will expose for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in gold and silver coin or the equivalent, at the Engine House of the Rough and Ready Mining Company on Grizzly Flat, Township No. 7, Placer county and State of California,

On Monday, the 27th day of February, 1865,

At 10 o'clock, A. M., all the right, title, claim and interest which the said W. S. Conner had on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1864, or has since thereunto acquired, in and to the following named and described property, to wit: One undivided twelfth interest or share of what is known as the Rough and Ready Company's Mining Claims, situated on Grizzly Flat, Township No. 7, Placer county and State of California, together with one undivided twelfth interest or share in an Engine and fixtures belonging to the same. The said Engine is now located on the said Rough and Ready Mining Company's claims. Also, one twelfth of an interest or share in all the Company's Wood, Timbers. Tools, Cars, Sluices, fixtures and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining. All of which named and described property I will sell as aforesaid, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the above judgment, together with the costs due, and to become due thereon.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

The only Remedy for Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsical Swellings, Genital Debility, Etc.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES,
IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET,
FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorders or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revived and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MRDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

Irritation of the neck of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, and Catarrh of the Bladder, Strangury or Burning, or Painful Urinating, Calculus, Gravel, Brick-dust Deposit, and Mucous or Milky Disharges after Urinating.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and to much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give your praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

MALES AND FEMALES,

Are you troubled with that dietressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Established by
DR. J. C. YOUNG, IN 1850,
For the Cure of Private Diseases of whatever naure
AND ALL FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

CONSULTING OFFICE,
540 WASHINGTON STREET,
SAN FRANCISCO, : : : : : CALIFORNIA
NO CURE, NO PAY.

Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. For direction of letters, see below.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE has enjoyed on this coast an uninterupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength and vigor from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold ever over the one afflicted, the sword of destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venerial, doubles in dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured: the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all diseasses entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT

Cures are Always Guaranteed,

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonnorhœa and its accompanying diseases; and all disorders of the Bladder, Kidneys and prostrate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Impotency; Incipient Consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, OR NO PAY REQUIRED at the PRIVATE

MEDICAL IVSTITUTE,

SFMINAL WEAKNESS OR SPERMATORROEA.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion, unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lacivious dreams accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases, Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence toward a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principal of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim of his evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult, then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance from business, change of diet, or fear of expnsure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy and the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation, by letter or otherwise, Free. See address below

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies or the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. None genuine unless procured at this office.

Card from the Grover & Baker S. M. Company.

The public, in their eagerness to supply themselves with Sewing Mrchines making the GROVER & BAKER stitch must not forget to purchase them of the parties who alone are authorized to sell them. All machines sewing from the spools and in which one needle only penetrates the cloth, and having a feed which allows the material to be turned at will are infringements

GROVER & BAKER, S. M. CO.

A Card from Elias Howe, Jr.

All persons are cautioned not to make, deal in, or use, any Sewing Machines which sew front two spools and make the stitch known as the GROVER & BAKER stitch, unless the same are purchased from the GROVER & BAKER SEWING COMPANY, or their Agents, or Licenses, and stamped under my patent of September, 10, 14.

Said Company and their Licenses, alone, are legally authorized under their own patents, and my said patent, during the extended term thereof, to make and sell this kind of Sewing Machines, and all others are piracies upon my said patent, and will be dealt with accordingly wherever found.

PUTNAM'S Clothes WRINGER.

IT IS THE ONLY RELIABLE
Self-adjusting Wringer.

NO WOOD-WORK TO SWELL OR SPLIT

No Thumb-Screws to get out of Order.

Waranted with or without Cog-wheels.

It took the FIRST PREMIUM at Fifty-seven State and County Fairs in 1863, and is, without an exception the best Wringer ever made. Patented in the United States, England, Canada, and Australia. Agents wanted in every town, and in all parts of the world. Energetic agents can make from $3 to $10 per day. Sample Wringer sent Express-paid on receipt of price. No. 2, $6 50. No. 1, $7 50. No. F, $8 50. No. A, $9 50. Manufactured and sold, wholesale and retail, by the

PUTNAM MANUFACTURING CO.,
No. 13 Platt str., New York, Cleveland, Ohio, and Birmingham, Vt.
S. C. NORTHROP, Agent.

WHAT EVERYBODY KNOWS:

That Iron well galvanized will not rust; that a simple machine is better than a complicated one; that a wringer should be self-adjusting and efficient; that thumb-screws and fastenings cause delay and trouble to regulate and keep in order; that wood soaked in hot water will swell, shrink and split; that wood bearings for a shaft to run in will wear out; that the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog-wheels, will not tear the clothes; that cog-wheel regulators are not essential, that the Putnam Wringer has ALL the advantages, and not one of the disadvantages above named; that all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made; that it will wring a Thread or a Bed-Quilt without alteration.

We might fill the paper with testimonials, but only insert a few to convince the skeptical, if such there be; and we say to all, TEST Putnam's Wringer. Test it thoroughly with ANY and ALL others, and if not entirely satisfactory, return it.

Putnam Manufacturing Co.—Gentlemn:—I know from practical experience that iron well galvanized with zinc will not oxidize or rust one particle. The Putnam Wringer is as near perfect as possible, and I can cheerfully recommend it to be the best in use.

Respectfully yours, JNO. W. WHEELER,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Many years' experience in the galvanising business enable me to indorse the above statement in all particulars. JNO. C. LEFFERTS,
New York, Jan. 1864. No. 100 Beekman str.

We have tested Putnam's Wringer by practical working and know that it will do. It is cheap; it is simple; it requires no room, whether at work or at rest; a child can operate it; it does its duty thoroughly; it saves time and its saves wear and tear. We earnestly advise all who have much washing to do, with all intelligent persons who have any, to buy this Wringer. It will pay for itself in a year at most.

WATTS' NERVOUS ANTIDOTE.

The Greatest Medical Discovery OF THE AGE!

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY CURE!

FOR ALL NERVOUS AFFECTIONS,

THIS MEDICINE IS ONLY PURELY VEGETABLE preparation and has never been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in the following cases:

Ague, Anxiety, Loss of Appetite, Asthma, Bronchitis, Cholera Morbus, Rheumatism, Convulsions, Delirium Tremens, Memtal Debility, Dyspepsia, Headache, Hysterics, Heart Disease, Palsy, Imbecility, Impotency, Suppressed Menses, Neuralgia, Pleurisy, Restlessness, St. Vitas Dance, Dolloreux, and Whooping Cough, &c., &c.

Columns of certificates of cures might be published, sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical, that this medicine is all that its discover claims for it. Persons with any of the above diseases, will do well to give it a trial before dosing themselves with mineral poisons, that while they sometimes afford temporary relief alway leave behind them the seeds of some other disease, oftentimes far worse than the which they are given to cure.
